A Message From Supt.

To the Graduating Class of 1980:

It has been a pleasure to watch your class as you have progressed through the High School and now you are graduating from our school.

Often, as we look ahead to a new life after graduation, we think that we will be free, but let me say to you that freedom is a very personal thing. Freedom does not mean that you can do what you please, but it is the right to be yourself, to make mistakes and to try again. Freedom is yours right now! It is an invitation to be creative, to build and to dedicate your life to the service of others.

As you leave our school to begin your new life, the faculty and staff join me in congratulating you and we are pleased and confident that you can accept the life of freedom and responsibility that awaits you.

Sincerely yours,

Philip E. Cronlund

Dedication

We, The Senior Class of 1980,
Proudly and respectfully dedicate our yearbook to our friend.

Mrs. Virginia Harms was a communications teacher in the High School for many years. She worked hard teaching her students language concepts and reading skills. After teaching the deaf for 37 years, she retired in Sept., 1977, but still returns to help out when needed.

Mrs. Harms went to the William Woods College in Fulton, Missouri and then to the University of Missouri where she majored in Social Studies and music. She trained to teach the deaf at the Western Pennsylvania School for the deaf.

Mrs. Harms' teaching career began in 1937 when she taught Social Studies at Lincoln High School in Lincoln, Missouri until 1939. From 1940 to 1942 she taught Intermediate classes at Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf. She then taught at the Missouri School for the Deaf from 1942 - 1945. In 1945, Mrs. Harms joined the staff here at N.J.S.D. for 2 years. In 1947, she returned to the Missouri School for the Deaf for a year. She then returned to N.J.S.D. and remained here for the next 29 years.

Mrs. Harms' late husband, John Harms, was also a teacher here at N.J.S.D. He taught in the Vocational Dept. for many years. At the end of each year, a John Harms Memorial Award is given to an outstanding vocational boy.

We wish to thank Mrs. Harms for her many years of service. For her Dedication and love, we, the Class of 1980, dedicate our yearbook to her - Mrs. Virginia Harms - "teacher extraordinaire".
